

For Immediate Release
June 28, 2011
Information: Julie Custer
206.328.2200 x235
jcuster@pratt.org

Sculpture in Motion* Exhibition

On Display at the Pratt Hallway Gallery July 12 – August 9th

Pratt Fine Arts Center is pleased to present the show Sculpture in Motion, a group exhibition featuring work created by students in instructor James Salay's kinetic sculpture class. Participants include Isabella Leary, Juliana Wisdom, Greg York and James Salay.

Pratt's Sculpture Department regularly offers classes in a variety of processes including welding, blacksmithing, moldmaking, bronze casting, figure sculpting, stone carving, and wood bending and steaming.

The Pratt Hallway Gallery, which is located just inside the main entrance of Building 1, showcases the artwork of Pratt instructors, students, and renters, demonstrating the quality, strength and range of talent that is cultivated and made possible by programs offered at Pratt Fine Arts Center. The gallery is open daily from 8:30am until 9:30pm.

Pratt's Exhibitions and Lecture programs are sponsored by grants from 4Culture, Adobe Foundation, ArtsFund, National Endowment for the Arts, The Seattle Foundation, Seattle Office of Arts and Cultural Affairs, and the Washington State Arts Commission.

What: Sculpture in Motion: Isabella Leary, Juliana Wisdom, Greg York and James Salay
Where: Pratt Hallway Gallery, Pratt Fine Arts Center, 1902 S. Main Street, Seattle, WA
When: July 12 – August 9, 2011
Hours: Open Daily from 8:30am - 9:30pm

Image: Isabella Leary, Untitled (detail), Mixed media, 2011. Photo courtesy of the artist.

Since 1976, Pratt Fine Arts Center has offered art classes for everyone and workspace for artists in its equipment-rich facilities in Seattle's Central District. Pratt serves 3,400 students each year and more than 500 working artists use Pratt's affordable studios and equipment.

**# # #