

Scholarship Background: This scholarship was founded by and named in honor of artists Jenny Pohlman and Sabrina Knowles to provide ongoing art opportunities for Seattle's high school students, with particular emphasis on inner-city high school youth. They continue to support this scholarship through an annual donation of art to Pratt's annual auction.

Award Description: Selected students will be awarded scholarships ranging from $200 to $600 in credit to be used at Pratt Fine Arts Center. Awards may be used for classes, art weeks and workshops in any of Pratt's studios.

Eligibility: This scholarship will be awarded to student(s) based on his or her interests. Pratt board members and their families, as well as Pratt staff are not eligible to apply. A jury of artists and arts professionals will select the recipient.

Application: All applications must include a typewritten project proposal not to exceed one page, answering the following questions:

- Describe your interests in art and Pratt.
- If you received a Pohlman Knowles Scholarship, what courses would you like to take?
- Is there anything else about yourself you would like us to know?
- A completed scholarship application form

Deadline: Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis. For more information please contact Myra Kaha at 206.328.2200 x 224 or email: mkaha@pratt.org Application packets should be addressed to:

Attn: Youth and Education Associate
